Month of The Immaculate Heart of Mary

Issue 22

"My Immaculate Heart will be your refuge, and the path that will lead you to God."

Prayers of Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Immaculate Heart of Mary

Devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary permeates the whole story and message of Fatima. One may well say that it is the very core of the message, as well as the solution presented for the problems of today's world.

The Spiritual Rosary Pilgrimage

Starting on September 8th, the birthday of the Blessed Mother, you will have access to the video meditations. (Please note that Parousia Media is based in Sydney, Australia, so the timing will be Australian Eastern Standard time. That means that those of you in the USA get access to the videos on the 7th, due to the time zone difference.)

The pilgrimage is completely free throughout the journey, which we conclude on October 7th - The Feast of the Holy Rosary. The pilgrimage is four weeks long and includes over thirty speakers. There will be: - 5 Keynote talks - 20 scriptural meditations (1 for each of the mysteries of the Rosary) - Bonus talks too! - Register here at: <https://www.parousiamedia.com/?via=fr-larry>

The Incredibles Behind the funny moments and action scenes, this movie covers some heavy topics: from dealing with depression and finding self-worth, to keeping a family together and fears of infidelity.

1) The main theme of the movie is learning how to use your unique gifts to their fullest potential. This is how you fulfill God's plan for your life. Just like the Incredibles you have your own unique gift. Are you using it or developing it at all? Are you using it responsibly?

2) Reflect on this quotation, "With great power comes great responsibility". How did each character use (or not use) their gift at the beginning and end of the movie? When was it used responsibly, when was it used irresponsibly? Answer: In the beginning Violet hated her uniqueness. Violet needed to learn to accept and actually use her gift. Dash only knew how to use his gift for his own selfish purposes and glory. By the end of the movie, he learned how to use his gifts to help other people other than himself. Mrs. Incredible did not use her power outside the house because she wanted to protect her family and fit in with the rest of society. She realizes by the end of the movie that each family member needs to let their gift shine. Mr. Incredible used his gift in secret and against the law, similarly to Dash, he was just doing good things to make himself feel good, to remember the glory days. He learned that his family comes first and that he should use his power

3) Reflect on this Bible Passage:

"You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden; nor does anyone light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on the lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. Let your light shine before men in such a way that they may see your good works and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

a) Do we sometimes hide our belief in God just to fit in just like Violet or Mrs. Incredible? Are we sometimes tempted to "keep religion in the home"? Do we sometimes suppress our gifts because of fear? Fear of failure? Fear of judgement? b) Do we sometimes accomplish something with our gifts and think, "I did it" or "I am great" like Dash and Mr. Incredible did? Do we use our gifts selfishly, or do we glorify God and thank him for our gifts?

4) Mr. Incredible is a man with many great qualities, but he sometimes makes poor and immoral decisions. What were his poor decisions and what caused him to make them? How does the devil sometimes twist good things into bad things? Answer: His quality of justice causes him to stand up to his boss at his office job. That is good. That same quality leads him to punching his boss in anger. His good quality of a fatherly desire to provide for his family causes him to make a shady deal with a secret company just so he can have a good paying job. His shame of not being able to provide for his family causes him to lie to his wife and keep secrets from his family. The devil cannot create. He can only take good things that God has made and twist them, so they become bad things. He just takes a good quality, adds in pride and selfishness, and then he gets a bad action.
